APT DC ANNOUNCES THE 2017 EMERGING PROFESSIONAL SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM

As part of its mission, APT DC supports emerging professionals that specialize in historic preservation or one of its affiliated fields - architecture, architectural or materials conservation, architectural history/research, construction, construction management, engineering, interiors, landscape architecture, or planning.

APT DC is pleased to announce the 2017 Emerging Professional Sponsorship Program – an annual tradition since 1999 that is made possible by donations to the Funder's Fund. This program provides a stipend for two, active APT DC members who are recent graduates to attend either the annual APTI conference or IPTN workshop.

Sponsorships are being offered for:

ASSOCIATION FOR PRESERVATION TECHNOLOGY INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Capitalizing on Heritage | October 11-14, 2017 | Ottawa, Canada

www.apti.org

INTERNATIONAL PRESERVATION TRADES NETWORK WORKSHOP

Makin' It by Hand | September 8-10, 2017 | Detroit, Michigan

www.ptn.org

Award: Two applicants will be selected - one to attend the APTI Conference in Ottawa, Canada and the other to attend the International Preservation Trades Workshop in Detroit, Michigan. Awarded applicants will receive full conference registration and a stipend to use towards lodging, travel arrangements, and food while in attendance at the conference.

Eligible Persons: Those who have completed an undergraduate degree, graduate degree, or other certified training program within the past five years in a preservation-related field and are currently working in that field.

Applications will be due by July 16, 2017 with selections made by July 24, 2017.
Please visit <https://omwzwwqu.paperform.co> to apply.

Please contact Committee Chair Ward Bucher at Ward@EncoreSDesign.com if you are interested in being an application judge or have any questions about the application process.
